

Home > News > News

News

31.08.2010

Patrick von Unold is the new manager of TQ's development division

Patrick von Unold, formerly the head of Quality Management at the TQ Group, has now taken over management of the development division. He replaces Michael Sturm, who will continue to work on projects with TQ as part of his own engineering firm.

As the head of the ...

>>> more

04.08.2010

New clean room for electronics production in an environment low in particles

TQ is increasing the number of options for manufacturing electronics in clean surroundings by incorporating an ISO 8.3 / 100,000 clean room. Apart from the clean room tent which has already been set up, and numerous laminar flow cabinets, TQ has now created the tec...

>>> more

05.05.2010

Daycare center TQ-Kinderhaus Hirschkäfer moves into new building in Delling

On April 30, 2010, the TQ daycare center Hirschkäfer moved into a new building in Delling near Seefeld. The building with 400 square meters of floor space was completed in almost ten months of construction time. The grounds are currently still being set up and it will therefore take a few more...

>>> more

28.04.2010

TQ Academy Day with more than 100 participants

On April 22, 2010, the TQ-Group hosted the 2nd TQ Academy Day at the headquarters in Seefeld near Munich. E<sup>2</sup>MS TQ-Systems and TQ-Components, the specialist for Embedded Systems, welcomed more than one hundred guests of their clientele. The interested visitors came mainly from the areas of management...

>>> more

27.04.2010

Girls'Day at TQ in Seefeld and in Wetter/Ruhr

On April 22, 2010, the TQ locations Gut Delling and Wetter an der Ruhr invited 18 girls to the Girls' Day. This nationwide action day serves to encourage girls to learn a technical profession. TQ arranged a varied program with interesting practical exercises for the schoolgirls.

The girls started t...

>>> more

26.03.2010

TQ-Group donates for SOS Children's Villages in Haiti

The earthquake in Haiti prompted the TQ-Group with headquarters in Seefeld to initiate a major support action: Approximately 700 employees in five company locations donated 5,140 Euro, an amount that was even doubled by the TQ management. Wolfgang Heinz-Fischer, Head of Marketing and Public Relation...

>>> more

22.03.2010

TQ-Systems secures development location in Chemnitz

The electronics service provider TQ-Systems has acquired all shares in Colour Control GmbH, Chemnitz. The enterprise with its 15 employees operates now as TQ-Systems Chemnitz GmbH and will continue to offer its services in the field of colorimetry as well as its development services to industrial cu...

>>> more

28.01.2010

TQ obtains Certification for medical device standard according to DIN EN ISO 13485

The CEM/E<sup>2</sup>MS-enterprise TQ-Systems has been successfully audited by TÜV Süd (Technical Standards Organization South) in the field of medical devices and has been awarded DIN EN ISO 13485 certification. The german system service provider with its registered office in Seefeld near Munich develops and ...

>>> more

go to Archive

